

Brian Murphy
Chief of Staff
Indiana Department of Education

Brian Murphy currently serves as Chief of Staff for the Indiana Department of Education. In this role, he oversees a team committed to building capacity, sparking innovation, and forging partnerships at all levels of Indiana's PK-12 education system to support educators and empower families.

In this role, he also serves as Executive Director for the Indiana State Board of Education, which oversees K-12 education policymaking in the State of Indiana. Prior to joining the Department of Education, Brian served in various roles with the State Board of Education, including general counsel and chief of staff. Brian earned a bachelor's degree in Finance from the University of Kentucky and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Mississippi.

He was appointed as Indiana's Compact Commissioner for the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children in November 2021.
