Military Compact Council Meeting Minutes

III. New Business

Chancellor Oliva provided general updates. He is pleased with the way the school year has been going. Schools have remained open and choice options for virtual education still available. Chancellor Oliva spoke about mitigating the learning loss and staying connected. High quality education is still a priority for the state. Other items of discussion: HOPE scholarship, attendance, maintaining rigor, and emergency rule development on health for contact tracing.

LaTonya Peterson (Director of External Affairs) provided an update regarding movement on Purple Star Designations for Schools. Rule development in place to align with implementation. There will be a workshop most likely at the end of November or early December.

IV. Open Issues

Lacy Allen-(had a question) regarding military family surveys. Has the DOE received the feedback?

Michelle Taylor-(had a question) Due to the legal action regarding mask mandates will this affect pupil spending. Jacob. Oliva (No) their withholding salaries of the state board and superintendents.

Kaye McKinnley asked if the Purple Star legislation would include charter schools.

V. Closing Remarks

Next meeting in January 8, 2022

Closing remarks from Felicia Trumpler
