

Brooke Huntington
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 Indiana

Brooke Huntington is the Chief Strategy and Operations Officer at the Indiana Department of Education. Previously, she served as the Assistant Dean of K12 Outreach for the Purdue Polytechnic Institute.

Raised in Madison, Indiana, Huntington began her career after graduation from Butler University with ArvinMeritor Inc. in Columbus, Indiana. At ArvinMeritor Inc., she held several management positions in product and market development including extended assignments in Sao Paulo, Brazil, and Queretaro, Mexico. She completed her MBA from Indiana University Kelley School of Business in 2002. Ms. Huntington has served as the Deputy Commissioner for Driver and Vehicle Services for the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Executive Director of Workforce and Economic Development for the Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana, and the Deputy Commissioner for Customer Solutions for the Indiana Department of Workforce Development. She served for several years as the president and chief executive officer of EmployIndy where she worked closely with industry leaders, educators, government, and philanthropy to transform Indianapolis' talent pipeline.

Ms. Huntington was appointed as the Compact Commissioner for the Indiana Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children in February 2024.