

Laura Kacer
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 Iowa

Laura Kacer, Compact Commissioner for the Military Interstate Children's Compact Commission (MIC3) for the State of Iowa was appointed by Governor Reynolds in 2023. Beginning her career in public education, she served in various capacities within the education system, ranging from a classroom teacher to various administrator positions and superintendent. Kacer has a deep understanding of educational policies, curriculum development and the diverse needs of students, teachers, and administrators. Throughout her tenure in public education, she has been instrumental in helping to enhance student achievement, fostering inclusive learning environments, and advocating for educational reforms.

In addition to her extensive experience in education, Kacer now serves as the Resiliency Coordinator for Polk County Emergency Management. She has specialized training and has been actively involved in planning, coordinating, and responding to various emergencies. Her experience in emergency preparedness, response protocols, and crisis management has been instrumental in helping to minimize the impact of natural disasters, public health crises, and other emergencies.

As a dedicated public servant, Kacer has consistently demonstrated a collaborative approach, working closely with stakeholders, government agencies, and community organizations to address complex challenges and develop effective solutions. Her leadership skills, coupled with her knowledge and experience make her an asset to the MIC3 efforts. In her role as MIC3 Commissioner, Kacer is committed to leveraging her extensive background in public education and emergency management to address key issues encountered by transitioning military families.
