

Teresa Ferenczhalmy
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 New Mexico

Teresa Ferenczhalmy is a native of northeastern Ohio. In 2013, her family moved to Holloman AFB, NM, when Teresa's husband was assigned to the base. They chose to remain in Alamogordo when Tom retired from active duty.

Teresa Ferenczhalmy serves as the Director of the STARBASE Holloman program. Teresa graduated from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Family Relations and Human Development with a focus in Early Childhood Education. She has worked in various school districts teaching elementary grade students wherever her husband was stationed.

Since 2019, Teresa has served as the governor-appointed Commissioner for the Military Interstate Children's Compact Commission, advocating for military families and their children in New Mexico. Teresa is currently a member of the MIC3 Communications and Outreach committee.

Teresa and her husband, Tom, are parents to two sons who are both officers in the United States Air Force. In her free time, Teresa enjoys cross-stitching, cooking, quilting, and spending time with family and friends.
