

Dr. Ryan Foor
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 Nebraska

Dr. Ryan Foor has served at the Nebraska Department of Education since 2015. Prior to serving at the NDE, Foor was a high school agriculture teacher and FFA advisor, university teacher educator, and university program assessment coordinator. During his tenure as a university faculty member, Foor advised graduate student theses and conducted research on teacher mentoring and job satisfaction. At the Nebraska Department of Education, he has worked in career and technical education, and for most of his tenure, served in the Commissioner's Office in various roles working with the State Board of Education. Prior to his appointment as Deputy Commissioner, Foor served as Assistant Commissioner and Chief of Staff.

Dr. Foor earned a bachelor of science degree in Agricultural Education from Iowa State University and master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees from The Ohio State University. He completed a specialist in education degree from Wayne State College and holds a Nebraska administrative certificate with a superintendent endorsement.