

Carrie Anderson
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 Pennsylvania

Carrie has over seventeen years of experience leading educational initiatives here in the United States as well as abroad. Carrie started her educational career as a Technology Teacher in Scotland. She went on to become a Curriculum Specialist for Edinburgh City Council, and later a Development Officer for Technology with Education Scotland.

Carrie joined the Pennsylvania Department of Education in 2018 and held a variety of roles, including School Improvement Specialist and Project Lead for the Future Ready Comprehensive Planning Portal. In 2022, Carrie began her role as the Division Chief for Planning and Professional Development. The Division of Planning and Professional Development houses many programs and projects, including MIC3 and Purple Star Schools.