

Dr. Spencer Barzee
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 Idaho

Dr. Barzee has been in education for 20 years and currently serves as the Eastern Idaho Regional Director for the Idaho Department of Education. Throughout his career in education, he has taught secondary mathematics, served as an elementary principal, special education director, high school principal, athletic director, and district superintendent.

He earned his bachelor's degree from BYU-Idaho, a master's degree and educational specialist from the University of Idaho, and a doctorate degree from Northwest Nazarene University. Spencer has been very happily married to Sherri for 21 years and they have six beautiful children. As a family, they enjoy sports and everything outdoors.

Dr. Barzee was appointed as Idaho's Commissioner Designee to the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children in July 2023.