

Nick Lambruno
Compact Commissioner
MIC3 West Virginia

CSM (RET) Nick Lambruno has spent the past 23 years on Active duty. He retired 01 June 2023. Throughout his military career, he has served in many roles including Instructor/Writer, Section Chief, Master Gunner, First Sergeant and Command Sergeant Major. He is currently serving the role as the State Mountaineer Challenge Academy Director for West Virginia.

Nick earned his bachelor's degree in organizational leadership from Mountain State University and has also completed The United States Army Sergeants Major Academy. He is married to Kelly Lambruno, and they have two children and one granddaughter. When not working, they enjoy traveling and supporting their youngest son's ATV Racing career.

Nick was appointed as the West Virginia MIC3 Commissioner in June of 2024.