Past – MIC3 History

Past: Brief historical reflection

- What is an interstate compact?
- Why and when did this compact start?
- When was the Compact fully executed by 50 states and the District of Columbia?
- How does this compact work and what does it cover?

Present – Today's MIC3

Present – Where are we now and how did we get here?

- National Office/CSG
- Establishing Mission and a Vision...

MISSION

Through the Interstate Compact, MIC3 addresses key educational transition issues encountered by children of military families.

- Establishing Shared Values...
  - Participate actively and equitably. Make contributions and room for the contribution of others.
  - Be prepared for meetings (review minutes ahead of meetings).
  - Ensure work is aligned to the strategic plan.
  - Utilize time allotted for meeting productively.
  - Plan agenda that focus on outcomes and actions required.
  - Use data to support decisions and guide discussions.
  - Communicate and support the decision of the group. Maintain confidentiality regarding disagreements expressed during meetings.
  - Candidly express disagreements with ideas, not individuals, and be willing to acknowledge what we don't know.
  - Build a cohesive and functional team.

Present – Today's MIC3 (cont)

- ...and Shared Commitments
  - Advance the organization to serve children (set aside adult issues).
  - Openness and transparency in all we do.
  - Collaboration based on trust.
  - The inclusion of diverse perspectives of all members (50+1).
  - Continual professional growth of the organization and the individuals and commissioners.
  - Make decisions using data, expertise and experience consistent with the strategic plan.
  - Our actions always reflect our vision, mission and values.
  - Regularly assess our performance and progress.
