

Proclamation

Whereas military youth of today and tomorrow promise to be among the most active and involved populations in our nation's history; and

Whereas the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction is honored to work with school districts and the Wisconsin Department of Military Affairs to provide support to children of service members as they transition between schools to address their distinct needs and prepare them to graduate as well-rounded citizens ready for college and career; and

Whereas the physical, social, and emotional well-being of children in military families is essential to their success and has a direct impact on the resiliency of military families serving our country; and

Whereas by ensuring military children are safe and supported in our schools and communities, our men and women in uniform can focus on the challenges and missions they face in the line of duty; and

Whereas our efforts and support can improve the lives of military youth and help pave the way for future generations.

Therefore, be it resolved that I, Carolyn Stanford Taylor, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, do hereby proclaim in the state of Wisconsin,

Military Child Month

I urge everyone to take time to honor our military youth and the family members who care for them.
