

SUMMARY

To address misalignment with secondary semesters, resulting in lost (Carnegie unit) seat time and loss of course credit for the entire semester.

PROPOSED RULES AMENDMENT

MIC3 Rules: Chapter 500 – Placement and Attendance

SEC. 5.104 Placement Flexibility

- (a) LEA officials shall have flexibility in waiving course/program prerequisites, or other preconditions for placement in courses/programs offered under the jurisdiction of an LEA.
- (b) In the event that a student transfers to another state or school district and there is misalignment with the secondary semesters, resulting in lost (Carnegie unit) seat time and loss of course credit for the entire semester due to the lost seat time, the receiving school has the flexibility to:
 - (1) provide the student with the missed coursework and waive the lost seat time and/or
 - (2) use discretion to waive the lost seat time and award semester credit if the student's end of semester grade(s) demonstrate mastery.
