

Dianna Ganote
Ex-officio Representative
US Department of Defense

Dianna Ganote began her career in the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Military Community and Family Policy in 2020, but not before spending 33 years working outdoor recreation, child development, and youth programs for the Army and Air Force and at Headquarter Air Force as a child development specialist. In her current role, she is responsible for the policy and oversight of the school liaison program, youth programs and partnerships, and background checks on individuals providing care and service to children in DoD programs. She is a proud graduate of North Carolina State University.
